CONTRIBUTION TO SCIENCE.—We are pleased to learn that our learned young townsman, Dr. William H. Geddings, who has spent the past two years in Germany, has contributed a valuable paper on the Pathological Anatomy of "Lupus"—the result of long and patient investigation, conducted by himself. The treatise was presented by Professor Bockitausky; the nestor of historiological science, before the Imperial Academy of Vienna, in whose transactions the said essay will be published.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE BOARD OF TRADE. This association will hold their annual meeting to-day, at the Charleston Hotel Club Room, for the election of officers and other business. The polls will be opened from 12 to 3 o'clock, hich the business meeting will be held. The report of the Secretary and Treasurer will be read, and the newly elected officers will be inaugurated. A collation will be furnished between the hours of 12 and 3. A general attendance of the members of the Board is re-

Y MASS MEETING OF THE UNION REPUBLICAN PARTY.—A large Republican meeting was held last night at the Club House. The hall was densely crowded with negroes, the few whites who were present being gathered immediately around the stage. The aisles, lobby and windows opening on the piazza were thronged with dusky citizens. On the stage were Dr. A. G. Mackey, General Scott, Colonel Willard, T. J. Mackey, D. T. Corbin (white), A. J. Ransier and Major Delaney (colored).

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.—The teachers and friends of the various Sunday Schools of our city are to assemble to-night, to listen to an address from Mr. R. G. Pardee, the editor of the Sunday School Times. The recent labors of this esteemed gentleman have been highly appreciated in the Southern cities. His suggestions regarding the elevation of the standard and imparting a higher biblical character to this most important institution, have stimulated to renewed energy the friends of this noble cause. The religious public are cordially invited to attend these exercises in the Second Presbyterian Church, Rev. Dr. Smythe's, at eight o'clock this (Tuesday) eve-

UNFORTUNATE RAILBOAD ACCIDENT.-Yesterday afternoon, about half-past six o'clock, while the train on the South Carolina Railroad was backing in at the corner of Woolfe-street and the railroad avenue, a young woman named Mary O'Brien was knocked down, and the wheels passed over her body, fracturing the right arm and both legs above the ankle. The cars were instantly stopped, and Drs. Aldrich and Prioleau called to the sufferer. Every attention was bestowed, and she was removed to the Hampstead Hospital, which was near her residence. Drs. F. Peyre Porcher and T. Grange Simons, the physician in charge and house physician, were called, and it was decided that amputation was necessary. Miss O'Brien is about twenty-two years of age, and was returning home when the accident occurred. Every attention has been paid her at the hospital, and it is possible that she may yet recover from her injuries.

How to KEEP A HOTEL.-First, be a big, hearty, whole-souled, jovial fellow, with a smile for everybody, especially when they settle their bills. Secondly, keep a first-rate table, first-rate servants, neat rooms, clean sheets, and chambermaids who are "death on bed-bugs." Third, have nice clerks who can swear to every traveller, with the most proper of faces, that he is about to receive the very best room in the house-clerks who emulate the politeness, benhommie and suaviler in modo of their chief. Major Horbach, of the Charleston Hotel, belongs to that immortal class who may be measured by these rules. $15. and the public are quick to find it out. FOR CALIFORNIA AND CHINA.-The tide of emigration from New York to California, China and the for West, is now something so a and the far West, is now something so enormous that the Pacific Mail Steamship Company have announced their intention of running a steamer every week, instead of Arizona, which left New York April 1st, carried besides twelve hundred tons of miscellaneous freight, over one thousand passengers. The superior accommodations furnished by this line, with a great reduction in their freight and passage rates, account for this enormous bu-some steps should be taken to protect the citizens from their raids. There are few streets try, and in too many cases there is reason to believe that the stock has been stolen. The two markets are the proper places to sell poultry, and if these are too far distant, certain portions of the city should be designated for this trade. It is true that the fowl vendors are required to take out a license, but this is often evaded, and unless some ordinance is passed which will regulate the traffic, our citizens will continue to suffer from the plunderers of their hen roosts. THE MANSION HOUSE .- The travelling public will be pleased to learn that this popular establishment has been taken by Mr. George R. Wells, for many years the head clerk and assistant superintendent of the Mills House. From his connection with the latter hotel Mr. Wells will be enabled to make his new home a Mills House Jr., and a number of the guests of the Mills will become inmates of the Mansion House. Mr. Wells has a large experience in hotel keeping, and his numerous acquaintances will be pleased to learn that although the Mills House is closed they can secure rooms with him, and have the same attention paid to their wants as heretofore. The Mansion House is to be fitted up as a first-class hotel, and will be opened on Wednesday under the new aus-

An Exopus.—The closing of the Mills House for the summer necessarily compelled a large number of the permanent boarders to seek other quarters. The main entrance was crowded yesterday with the trunks and baggage of the departing guests. For six long months the Mills House will be but the shadow of its former self; the rooms will be closed and the doors barred against the traveller, and only those who have charge of the building will be allowed ingress. That portion of Meetingstreet will lose its wonted life and activity. It is an ill wind, however, that blows no one good, and what is a loss to the Mills House may prove a gain to other hotels in the city. MAYOR'S COURT. - The docket yesterday morning was quite slim, and the business of the

While he is satisfied that these complaints apply to a few persons only of both parties, it is proper that all such persons should be warned that any attempt by force to prevent, hinder or delay the execution of providential and miraculous delivery from the laws of the United States, under the authority of which the said election is ordered, or by force, intimidation or threat, to prevent any person from accepting or holding any office of trust or place of confidence under the United States, as Registrar, Super-Tuesday next are observed sacred. The four intendent, Judge, Manager, Inspector or Clerk, or other employment at said election, will be amenable, not only to the penalties prescribed under the authority of the said laws, but for violation of the Act of Congress "to define and punish certain conspiracies," approved July 31, 1861.-(Statutes at Large, Volume 12, Chapter XXXIII.)

It is the duty of the civil and military authorities in both States to secure to every registered voter the distributed to those families who are too poor full and free exercise of his right of suffrage, and this duty must be fully, faithfully and impartially lows: Before going to the Synagogue in the performed; and the Commanding General confidently expects that the people of these States will unite in securing for each other the full and proper exercise of this franchise. But if in any district or county, or polling subdivision of either State, the election should be prevented or the ballot-boxes or poll lists should be destroyed, or the electors duly registered under the laws of the United States should be prevented by force or intimidation from voting, a new election will be ordered for such district, county or polling subdivision.

To the end that the laws of the United States may be duly exercised; that the officers charged with conducting the elections may be protected in the discharge of their duties, and that the qualified electors may be protected in the exercise of the elective franchise, Commanders of Posts are authorized, whenever in their judgment it may be necessary, to appoint, from the officers of the army or of the Freedmen's Bureau, under their command, Military Commissioners for Districts or Counties within the territorial limits of their commands that are so remote from their headquarters that the powers conferred upon Post Commanders cannot be immediately or directly exercised. The Military Commissioners so appointed are inrested with all the powers of Justices of the Peace of districts or counties, or the police magist rates of cities, and will be governed in the execution of their duties by the laws of the State in which they may be serving, except so far as these laws may be in con-flict with the laws of the United States or with the orders issued from the headquarters of this district; and, in addition to any troops that may be placed at their disposal, are given the command of the police force of districts, counties, cities and towns; and all police officers, sheriffs, constables and other peace officers are required to obey and execute the orders all cases in which they assume jurisdiction, and the disposition made of each case. When parties are held for trial, either in confinement or under bail, the case will be so fully reported as to enable the commanding general to decide whether it shall be tried by a military tribunal, or be brought before a civil court.

SACRED CONCERT .- A rare opportunity of enjoying very excellent music will be afforded to the community next (Easter) week, at St-Paul's Church, Coming-street. The building is one of our finest church edifices, and its organ is, perhaps, the finest in the city. Prof. Eckel, the organist of the church, has undertaken, under the sanction of the Rector and Vestry, to give a sacred concert in the church on the evening of Monday, the 14th inst., the proceeds of which will be applied to the support of the church choir for the ensuing year. The concert will consist entirely of selections of sacred music, taken from the oratarios and other most finished works of the great masters. A full orchestra of wind and string instruments, led by Mr. Metz, will be combined with the organ; the chorus of male and female voices, comprising the best singers, will be very large, and, under the experienced leadership of Prof. Deden, will give an effective rendering of the magnificent passages of music assigned to them. A chorus of male voices only, led by Prof. Hoffman, and comprising the best talent of the Saengerbund, will also be introduced. The Society of the Saengerbund, established by our genial and music-loving German citizens, is itself a guarantee of the merit of the singers it contributes to this entertainment. A grand orchestral concert, a solo on the organ, several vocal solos, duetts, trios and quartettes, will be announced in the programme, in addition to the chorus music. Professor Eckel has thrown into all the arrangements of the occasion his usual energy and enthusiasm. His accomplishments as a musician are well known here; and being moreover a dear lover of the art, he has taken care to select the music in such a way as to make it acceptable to the tastes of all; while at the same time full opportunity will be given to every voice and instrument to appear to the best advantage. He will preside at the organ and direct the whole concert. No pains or labor will be spared by him or those who An aspiring youth undertook to raise his are so ably assisting him to make this concert

> UNITED STATES COURT.-Hon. George S. Bryan Presiding .- The court opened at eleven o'clock yesterday morning. Judge Bryan gave notice that the equity

The Northeastern Railroad.

To the Editors of the Daily News: The good management and prosperity of our railroads are closely connected with the general welfare of the communities which they bring together.

Upon one of these-the Northeastern Railroad-my official duties cause me to be a daily traveller, and concerning it I desire to say few words of commendation: First, its courteous and energetic president has deserved and secured the esteem of those who pass over the road and do business upon it, by his unremitting efforts to promote the interests both of the public and the corporation. Secondly, the engineer and superintendent, Mr. S. S. Solomons, is emphatically the right man in the right place. Thirdly, the employees, the conductors and engineers, are urbane, watchful and accommodating; and, finally, the new passenger and mail cars recently placed upon the road are equal to any in the Southern country. The mail cars require some little improvement in their internal arrangements, but take them all in all, the change from the old intolerable, man-killing, body-jerking machines in which we used to ride, is as gratifying as it is great. As a route of travel northward, I know of no line more desirable than the Northeastern Railroad. If the passenger desires a safe transit and close connection, he certainly can secure it here, and I am not sure that the same can be said of any other road out of the State. It is for these reasons that I have thought fit to call the attention of the public to the subject in this personal and epistolary manner.
